| REVIEW  | Revise your knowledge of literary devices and methods as this will help you when you are analysing the set texts. As the texts you study at A Level are new and different to GCSE, the best way to prepare is to read widely and purposefully. You can do this completing the work in the transition booklet and undertake some wider reading as suggested by the reading lists. |
| READ  | Please see the attached reading list to inspire your summer reading choices! There are some fantastic literary choices on both the ‘Tragedy’ reading list and the ‘Literature’ reading list- enjoy! |
| WATCH/LISTEN  | Massolit (you will need a log in so please contact inghamn@fulford.york.sch.uk if you do not have one) Watch the first 5 lectures to introduce ‘Tragedy’: https://www.massolit.io/courses/tragedy-a-complete-history |
| COMPLETE  | Work through the activities in the ‘Transition Booklet’ attached and bring this with you to your first Literature A Level lesson in September. |
